End Stage 3 English – Discussion – Grade D

have been discussing that money is the most important thing in life. Money is not the most important thing in life because you cannot buy happiness, love or friends.

Other people disagree, they say that money is the most important thing in life because they say that money can buy you clothes and you can go places. People say it can cover your health, insurance and dentist cover. I think that money is not the most important thing in the world.

Grade Commentary

Morgan has demonstrated a basic knowledge and understanding of the content and structure of the text type. A basic understanding of the structure of a discussion is revealed. There is limited supporting evidence used to justify both sides of the argument. The discussion is also limited in the detail provided and the use of persuasive language appropriate to the text type.

Morgan’s response demonstrates characteristics of work typically produced by a student performing at a grade D standard.
