

New Stage 6 Syllabus

MODERN HISTORY

The new Modern History syllabus has been developed using the established NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) syllabus development process. The syllabus includes Australian curriculum content and reflects the new directions of the Stronger HSC Standards reforms.

The Stronger HSC Standards reforms include:

- supporting the achievement of high minimum standards for all students
- ensuring the flexibility and versatility of the Higher School Certificate (HSC) to cater for the full range of students
- encouraging every student to achieve at their highest possible level
- a focus on the acquisition of deep knowledge, understanding and skills for students.

NSW Stage 6 syllabuses are inclusive of the learning needs of all students. The syllabuses accommodate teaching approaches that support student diversity, including students with special education needs, gifted and talented students and students learning English as an additional language or dialect (EAL/D).

Many of the features of the current Stage 6 syllabuses have been retained, including:

- rationale
- aim
- objectives
- outcomes
- content for Year 11 and Year 12 courses.

New features of Stage 6 syllabuses include:

- Australian curriculum content identified by codes
- Learning across the curriculum content, including cross-curriculum priorities and general capabilities
- publication in an interactive online format
- an interactive glossary.

What is similar?

Students will continue to be provided with opportunities to:

- investigate a range of historical contexts and time periods
- develop historical skills for depth of study
- undertake an Historical Investigation, to develop investigative, research and presentation skills
- study content related to Western history such as Australian, European, US history
- investigate two case studies from different world regions in Year 11
- study National Studies and Peace and Conflict topics in Year 12.

What is different?

- Historical concepts and skills are integrated.
- Students will have opportunities to study Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures in more depth.
- In Year 11:
 - content about the nature, methods and issues of Modern History
 - increased opportunities to investigate the shaping of the modern world.
- In Year 12:
 - a new Core Study, Power and Authority in the Modern World 1919–1946
 - the requirement to study at least one non-European/Western topic
 - an emphasis on post-World War II history in Change in the Modern World
 - each topic consists of a Survey and Focus of Study.

Why is assessment changing?

The Stronger HSC Standards reforms provide new directions for assessment practices in all Stage 6 courses to:

- rebalance the emphasis on assessment to allow more time for teaching and learning
- maintain rigorous standards
- provide opportunities to assess students' depth of knowledge and their conceptual, analytical and problem-solving skills.

School-based assessment requirements for Modern History have changed to reflect new outcomes, course structure and content.

How are the school-based assessment requirements for Modern History changing?

NESA continues to promote a standards-referenced approach to assessing and reporting student achievement. The approaches of assessment for, assessment as and assessment of learning are important to guide future teaching and learning opportunities and to provide students with ongoing feedback.

Changes to school-based assessment requirements for each course include:

- mandated components and weightings for Year 11 and Year 12
- capping the number of school-based assessment tasks to three in Year 11 and four in Year 12
- specified minimum and maximum weightings for formal tasks
- a variety of tasks to assess student knowledge, understanding and skills.

What is the plan for implementation?

What materials will be provided to support implementation?

Many existing resources will continue to be useful and relevant. Teaching units will need modification to meet the requirements of the new syllabus.

Support materials will assist teachers in familiarisation and planning for implementation of the syllabus and assessment requirements. Program Builder, an online programming tool, will be available for teachers in Term 1, 2017.

Initial materials released with the syllabus include:

- school-based assessment requirements
- assessment advice
- a parent guide to new syllabuses and assessment.

Additional materials to be released throughout 2017 include:

- sample scope and sequences
- sample teaching units
- sample assessment schedules
- sample assessment tasks
- advice on making adjustments for students with special education needs.

HSC Examination Specifications with sample materials will be released in Term 3, 2017.

The NSW Department of Education, the Catholic Education Commission NSW, the Association of Independent Schools of NSW and other school systems and professional teacher associations will continue to assist and support implementation of the syllabus.

How can I access the new Modern History syllabus?

The Modern History syllabus is available on the NESA website.
