

HISTORY YEARS 7–10

GUIDE TO THE NEW NSW SYLLABUS

The Australian curriculum is being implemented in New South Wales through new syllabuses developed by the Board of Studies. The new History K–10 Syllabus will replace the change and continuity strand in the current HSIE K–6 Syllabus and the History Years 7–10 Syllabus.

The new History syllabus includes agreed Australian curriculum content and content that clarifies learning for History from Kindergarten to Year 10. The stage statements for Early Stage 1 to Stage 5 reflect the intent of the Australian curriculum achievement standards.

The syllabus identifies knowledge, understanding, skills, values and attitudes students are expected to develop at each stage, from Kindergarten to Year 10. Teachers will continue to have the flexibility to make decisions about the sequence of learning, the emphasis to be given to particular areas of content, and any adjustments required based on the needs, interests and abilities of their students.

The Years 7–10 section of the syllabus is designed to be taught within the existing NSW indicative time requirements.

Assessment for learning continues to be an essential component of the History K–10 Syllabus.

Learning across the curriculum areas include cross-curriculum priorities, general capabilities and other important learning for all students. These 13 areas are incorporated in the content of skills, each syllabus and identified by icons. Teachers may identify additional opportunities for skills, students to learn about these areas.

The structure and many of the features of the current History syllabus have been retained, including:

- objectives and outcomes
- content organised in stages from Early Stage 1 to Stage 5.

WHAT IS SIMILAR?

Students will continue to:

- study familiar content in:
 - Stage 4: the Ancient World, Medieval Europe, and Indigenous and Contact History
 - Stage 5: Australians at War, Rights and Freedoms, Federation, migration and social history
- experience an inquiry-based approach to learning through inquiry questions as a focus for each topic
- undertake a mandatory site study for both Stage 4 and Stage 5
- have an opportunity to study the History Elective course in Stage 4 and/or Stage 5.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT?

- Content is organised in Overviews and Depth Studies.
- Depth Studies offer new topics in:
 - Stage 4: the Ottoman Empire, Mongol Expansion, Polynesian Expansion, and the Angkor/Khmer Empire

- Stage 5: the Industrial Revolution, Asia and the world, and the environmental movement. There will also be an opportunity for an optional school-developed Depth Study which might build on local needs and interests.
- A continuum of both historical concepts and historical skills.
- Related Life Skills outcomes are included with the Stage 4 and Stage 5 content.

HOW DOES THE SYLLABUS CATER FOR ALL STUDENTS?

The History K–10 Syllabus is inclusive of the learning needs of all students. Particular advice about supporting students with special education needs, gifted and talented students, and students learning English as an additional language or dialect is included in the syllabus.

Students with special education needs can access the History K–10 Syllabus outcomes and content in a range of ways, including:

- under regular course arrangements
- with adjustments to teaching, learning and/or assessment experiences.

For some students with special education needs, particularly those with an intellectual disability, Life Skills outcomes and content can provide a relevant and meaningful program.

WHAT SUPPORT IS THE BOARD PROVIDING?

Many existing resources will continue to be useful and relevant. Current units of work can be modified to meet the requirements of the new syllabus, and some existing units will form the bases of effective programs.

For the first time, the History syllabus will be available in an interactive online format. The interactive online format provides different ways to customise views of the syllabus. The online History syllabus can be viewed by stage, outcomes and content, and provides links to support materials and other online resources.

Support materials will be distributed to assist teachers in understanding the syllabus and its associated assessment requirements.
